VIENNA, Feb. 24.—Amid tension caused by a Nazi drive against Austria's 250,000 Jews, elaborate preparations were completed today for the eagerly awaited speech Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg will make before the Austrian parliament tonight. Broadcasting facilities designed to reach every man and woman in the nation were completed for the speech, which will begin at 7 p. m. and is expected to continue for two hours.

Nation-wide Broadcast

Motion picture houses, restaurants and theatres have installed loud speakers so that their patrons may hear the entire speech from their seats.

Schuschnigg's fatherland front organization will stage mass meetings and demonstrations at public buildings but display of either Austrian or Nazi flags has been forbidden for tonight. Police have completed elaborate precautions to cope with any disorders.

Adding to the excitement, newspapers appearing on the Vienna streets at noon published a French report attributed to the Italian newspaper Avenira d'Italia that Italy would guarantee Austria's independence in return for recognition of her conquest of Ethiopia by Britain and other powers.

The report also stated Germany would receive colonial concessions in return for cancellation of her "annexation" of Austria.

It is not often that little girls engage in real battles, but one of Pa Newc's boys saw a couple of young Croton jassies going to it for fair, the other day, and he had a number of cheering backers from the fair sex who were egging them on. It ended abruptly when they fought their way out into the middle of the street and almost were run over by an automobile.

Skating enthusiasts have about given up hopes for any more good ice for skating this winter. Weather conditions seem to have turned to a spring-like trend that bodes no good on.

With the work of removing the books from the public library building at North and Jefferson streets to the new building at North and Mercer streets, there is conjecture as to what disposition will be made of the building being vacated. Suggestion is made that the site would make an excellent one for a bus terminal.

There seems to be a lot of trouble with house connections from the streets to houses around the city. Many properties or streets have been dug up recently to remedy trouble.

Several North street children were saddened this week when a motorist ran over their dog, in front of the North street school, killing the animal. The driver never stopped to (Continued On Page Two)

Employees of the New Castle Terminal of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, established a perfect safety record during the year of 1937, and as a result, recognition of a high standard will be given Terminal Trainmaster J. P. Cable, who will shortly receive from the management of the railroad, the Presidential Award for Safety. This is a handsome gold watch, suitably engraved.

Considering the hazards under which most of Mr. Cable's employees work throughout the year, around the railroad yards and on the road, the record is particularly outstanding and reflects the caution which railroad men of today exercise.

Presentation of the award to Mr. Cable will probably be made soon. It is expected, announcement of the honor having been received today.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Germany today was reported taking an active hand in the Anglo-Italian negotiations aimed at easing tension in the Mediterranean and bringing about a general European appeasement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Acting on the advice of producers and consumers, the National Bituminous Coal Commission today revoked its 30,000 or more minimum coal prices and regulations, effective tomorrow. The commission's order was also intended to nullify any advantage which large industries, consumers and users may have gained from the temporary suspension of the scheduled and marketing rules by the U. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—The Ruth legislative committee today will open formal investigation into the Mary Keenan O'Connor case from the killing of five-year-old Nancy Glenn last Labor Day to the jury verdict which acquitted the case at the state level last Friday.

The committee decided to lift the case after Mayor S. Davis Wilson demanded an investigation not only of the O'Connor case, but of "the entire system which makes possible the acquittal of guilty people and the indictment and conviction of innocent ones."

Investigators for the commission, who have been quietly preparing a case on the case, conferred with the detectives who arrested Mary and prepared the case for trial. They are seeking to determine why Mary was not arrested until November 21, six weeks after the child's death, when she was found at her grandfather's home in Merchantville, N. J.

Watson also won a divorce. During the trial testimony was introduced concerning a dozen instances in which each couple allegedly swapped mates.

Mrs. Smith was found on the floor of the gas-filled kitchen of her home here. The jets in the range were open and the doors and windows closed.

Hungary Seeks

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Hungary today offered to settle its post-war debt of $1,685,000—pin money compared to the allied war debts—on a basis of about 50 cents on the dollar, but congressional opposition was such that it appeared unlikely the proposal would be considered at this time.

Hungary recently resumed small partial payments of one percent per annum of its debt which was contracted after the armistice in the purchase of American wheat.

Offer Is Made
In an aside-memoir, the Hungarian government has offered to pay the full amount of the original principal over a period of 30 years. The Hungarian minister termed the proposal as repayment of "100 cents on the dollar." But an analysis by financial experts showed it to be one of repayments on a basis of about 50 per cent and over a lengthy period without further interest payment.

While Hungary stated it wished to settle the original principal, it asked that payments of $478,000, made from 1924 to 1931, prior to the default, be deducted from the original principal. Of this amount only $74,000 was paid on principal, the balance being interest. Likewise, Hungary, also asked that the United States wipe out all future interest charges and accept non-interest bearing bonds covering a period of 30 years. Thus Hungary would pay without consideration of interest the small amount of $30,000 annually.

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Feb. 24.—Funeral services were held here today for a seven-year-old Imogene Schultz, who finally lost a three-year battle to survive a bullet wound inflicted by her mother in 1934.

Unbalanced by brooding over the death of her husband, the mother, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell Schultz, fired a bullet into her daughter's head and then ended her own life. The girl was not expected to live but for three years fought tenaciously to survive. Last Tuesday she suffered a relapse and died. The murder and suicide occurred in the Schultz home here.

Police said Mrs. Schultz had been despondent since the death of her husband, Leroy Schultz, on September 30, 1934. After conceiving the idea of the double deaths, she sent a letter to her brother-in-law, Harry Schultz in Ambler, Pa., explaining she had visited an Erie spiritualist who told her that her husband was awaiting her in the great beyond. She had also changed her insurance policy, making her father, John P. Mitchell, of Ambler, the beneficiary of the $1,000 instead of her daughter, Imogene.

TOKYO, Feb. 24.—Southern Japan experienced a brief but terrifying air raid scare today with reports that a fleet of new Chinese bombers was speeding across the East China Sea on an errand of death and destruction.

At 11:40 a. m. Japanese defense headquarters at Fukuoka on Kyushu Island, southernmost of the main Japanese islands, issued an air raid warning upon receipt of information that 15 Chinese planes had passed over Hangchow, China, en route to western Japan.

Late this afternoon, however, an "all clear" signal was sounded for Kyushu Island when the planes failed to appear and Japanese authorities decided they were not coming after all.

Relieves Tension
The "all clear" notice relieved tense apprehension at Nansai, Kyushu's principal port, which has a population of 211,000. Fukuoka and other populous centers of the island.

Still another alarm was sounded on the Japanese island of Formosa, off the Chinese coast, which was bombed by Chinese aircraft yesterday with casualties reported at more than 40.

At 3 p. m. the Formosa air defense headquarters warned the population Chinese aircraft were approaching. The warning signal later was lifted and it was announced the Chinese planes had avoided Formosa. For a time, officials expressed fears these planes, too, might be flying toward the Japanese mainland.

Military authorities here and on Kyushu Island had estimated it would take the Chinese planes about (Continued On Page Two)

BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 24.—Chief of Police James E. Cochran, head of the police department for the past two years, was removed from office today by Mayor Hugh J. Ryan in a surprise move.

"I feel at the moment that it is advisable," Mayor Ryan said in a brief statement explaining the change. He declined to amplify the statement and did not reveal the exact reasons for his action.

Cochran when questioned said he had no statement to make. He said he did not receive notice of the impending change and that the mayor was requesting his resignation made no specific charges.

Sergeant Edward Edmunds, on the force for the past six years, was named acting chief of police in a notice posted at the police station over the mayor's signature.

The levee, one of the strongest in the section broke last night, according to flood officials here, sending flood waters over a wide and populous farming area and catching both rescue crews and residents of the section by surprise.

No loss of life in the section was anticipated, however, as the flood section is flat land and the water was rising very slowly in the overflow area.

Three other levees along White river broke in the vicinity of Cation Plant last night, authorities reported. While crews appeared at Peach Orchard Bluff and at Prince Landing.

In other sections, however, both the Arkansas and White rivers were receding, and all danger at Little Rock, Newport and Batesville was believed past.

Despite the growing inland sea in southwest Arkansas as a result of the new levee break at Cation Plant, flood routing crews at Fulton, Mo., reported they were holding their own in their battle to save the town.

Meanwhile, the growing number of refugees presented relief workers with a major problem. Red Cross Director Albert Evans today estimated there are at least 14,000 refugees in the 21 counties affected by the flood and predicted that at least 10,000 more persons will be driven from their homes before the flood waters recede.

Green Revokes State A. F. of L. Charter

Labor Warfare Now Intensified

Green Declares Policies Of 400,000 A. F. of L. Members Can't Be Dictated By Outsiders

PHILLIPS SAYS MOVE RADICAL DEPARTURE

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 24.—The John L. Lewis-William F. Green battle over the nation's labor policies struck hard in the Keystone state today.

The gap between the C. I. O. forces of Lewis and Green's A. F. of L. affiliates was definitely widened, with the last faint hope of a get-together between the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor A. F. of L. body and Green, apparently gone.

Green Takes Action
Green last night revoked the charter of the Pennsylvania Federation after the Federation declined to follow the A. F. of L. head's instructions and purge its ranks of C. I. O. affiliates. John A. Phillips, president of the federation, had appealed to the executive committee from the Green order. The committee at its recent convention in Miami, Fla., empowered the A. F. of L. president to "take whatever action he saw fit."

Phillips had 24 hours in which to turn over the charter, records and books to A. F. of L. representatives. "This action serves notice that the policies of the 400,000 loyal members of the A. F. of L. unions in Pennsylvania cannot be dictated by self-constituted labor leaders not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, nor can their votes be delivered by such leaders, ambitious for political power," Green declared in a statement accompanying the revocation action.

"The Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor must be the instrument through which these local federations—and not dual organizations—may express themselves upon economic, political, social and industrial questions," he added.

Phillips termed Green's action "a radical departure from all known policy and tradition of the American Labor movement."

"From the very beginning of the controversy between the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O., the Pennsylvania Federation has devoted itself to the maintenance of labor unity. The Pennsylvania Federation has only one motive for existence—the welfare of the wage earners of the state organized or unorganized. A. F. of L. or C. I. O.," he added.

Britain's ambassador to Rome, the Earl of Perth, was en route to London for instructions. Following conversations with Ciano, he departed from the Italian capital raising his arm in Il Duce's Fascist salute.

Topics In Parley
In his preliminary talks, it was learned, Lord Perth sought an agenda for the projected Anglo-Italian "peace talks" and the principal topics suggested were:

1.—The question of British recognition of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia.

2.—Possibility of a naval pact, under which Italy would seek naval parity in the Mediterranean while Britain would request that Italian troops in Libya be reduced.

3.—Cessation of press and radio propaganda attacks against each other.

In return for reducing her troops in Libya, adjoining Egypt, it was learned, Italy wants assurances the Suez Canal will be safeguarded against closing or air attacks.

FACTS ABOUT INCOME TAX
DEDUCTION FOR TRAVELING EXPENSES
To obtain a deduction for traveling expenses, which form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers, certain regulations must be observed. The taxpayer is required to attach to his return a statement showing the nature of business in which engaged, number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business, total amount of expense incidental to meals and lodging, and total amount of "other expenses" incident to travel and the "other expenses" are tips, provided they are reasonable in amount.

Traveling expenses are deductible only when the trip is on business. They are limited to such expenses as are reasonable and necessary in the conduct of the business and directly attributable to it.

Traveling expenses incurred in connection with a journey to another city to accept or seek employment are not deductible. Suburbanites who commute daily from their homes to their places of business are not permitted to deduct the cost of transportation, it being a personal expense.

Claims for deduction for traveling expenses must be substantiated, when required by the commissioner of internal revenue, showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred.

six hours to reach the island from Hangchow, the Japanese-held Chinese city where they were sighted. When this period passed and no planes appeared, military authorities decided there was no immediate danger of an air raid.

Plan Hot Reception
Meanwhile, preparations had been made at Kyushu to give any Chinese attacking planes a hot reception. Strens were sounded at the Sasebo naval base, Nagasaki, Fukuoka, and Shimomoto—all important industrial and arsenal centers.

Today's scare found Japan still stunned by yesterday's assault, the first air raid ever made on her territory, in which eight Chinese planes bombed Taihoku, capital of Formosa and other cities.

This attack caused officials in Tokyo to take immediate measures against a possible aerial attack on the Japanese capital.

It was admitted officially that 10 persons were killed and between 20 and 30 wounded but in view of government efforts to minimize the results of the Chinese raid it was believed the casualties may prove higher than the official estimate.

The war ministry sought to conceal a casualty list issued by the government and announced the only damage in Formosa was an "inconsequential bombing of rice fields."

Must Revise Campaign
Success of the Chinese planes in reaching and bombing Formosa may make it urgently necessary for the Japanese Imperial headquarters in Tokyo to revise its campaign in China. The attacking planes were believed to have taken off from Canton.

In view of this, it is probable a plan to abandon Japanese attacks on Canton and Hankow may be dropped and that further Japanese air raids may be staged against these two Chinese cities. Abandonment of attacks on Hankow and Canton had been planned on the theory the regime of Generalissimo Chiang-Shek might "disintegrate as a result of its own intrigues."

O. A. O. CLUB TUREN HELD WEDNESDAY EVE

The familiar St. Patrick's Day green predominated in the appointments for the tureen dinner held by members of the O. A. O. club Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Wimer, Beckford street. Green tapers provided the light and novel green favors marked each place.

Mrs. Wilbur McKibben, a member of the club, was honored at this time with a handkerchief shower in remembrance of her birthday anniversary.

Bridge occupied the evening hours with awards falling to Mrs. McKibben and Mrs. Robert Gibson.

March 10 is the date set for the next meeting at which time Mrs. Thomas Baskelyfield will entertain the group in her home on Warren avenue.

MRS. CARL KIRCHNER HONORED BY OHIOANS

Mrs. Carl Kirchner of King avenue, was taken by surprise at her residence on a recent evening, when a group of friends from Youngstown, O., motored here to honor her on her birthday anniversary, with a dinner party.

Afterwards, the time was spent informally with various avenues of pastime, and the honoree was presented with a number of lovely gifts. Lunch was served before the group adjourned for their homes in Ohio.

An enjoyable time for the Paksy-Waksy club members was that of Wednesday evening when they met in the home of Mrs. Anthony Frank on Franklin avenue, for a social time. Two special guests included Mrs. James Ross of Ellwood City, sister of the hostess, and Mrs. Parizak.

A shower was tendered one of their number, Mrs. Marshall Ciotto, taking her by complete surprise. She received a collection of lovely gifts in behalf of the club.

In bingo and 500 prizes fell to Mrs. Louis Littin and Mrs. Edward Wagner. Immediately following, the hostess served an appetizing repast with appointments of the season predominating.

Wednesday, March 9, the club will meet with Mrs. J. J. Hennecheck on East Washington street.

The Parent
Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILDREN AND FIGHTING

"My Dear Dr. Myers: I am so very much in sympathy with the great work you do in your column. I was sorry to miss hearing you or Mrs. Myers when you appeared here personally, but had to attend the P. T. A. convention at St. Paul as president and one of the delegates of our local unit.

"Will you please tell me where I can get your pamphlet, 'Learning to Be Lovable.' I was so very interested in your column today. I have stressed the idea of getting around a fight diplomatically, but have wondered if all psychologists and educators would uphold me in this. I see today one must teach, however, there are times a boy has to use his fists.

"I have a boy eight years old who is now at the fighting age. He is not very anxious to get into a fight even though goaded by his playmates. He came home with a bruise over his right eye as the result of a fight. I did not appear surprised, but asked him calmly if he had fallen down. He said 'No, do you really want to know?' Then he told me, and added, 'But you ought to see Dan. He looks much worse than I do.' He was so calm about it all. That night I talked to him about being diplomatic.

"Is it a good idea to let boys fight at this age? Do they get it out of their systems? Some say they do. I don't agree, but I would like the opinion of an authority.

Would Not Disagree.
Answer: You and I would not disagree widely on the fighting problem. I think we do not want children to pick fights and we want them to be diplomatic. As a rule, the better play skills they have and the more useful things they can do to win the admiration of other boys, the less occasion they will have to fight. A boy once told me that the most quarrelsome, pugnacious pupils in his school were one who enjoyed no success in the classroom or at games on the playground.

Nevertheless, the boy or girl from six to ten or twelve who will not defend himself with his fists when attacked is likely to be imposed on and to acquire strong fears and to suffer deep humiliations. As a result of these fears he or she is likely to avoid the group, to be quarrelsome with other children, even to be a bully. For a child this age ever to fight even in self-defense, and to acquire a reputation for being a bully and suffering coward of him, I prefer to encourage him or her to use the fists in self-defense, hoping the resulting self-assurance will encourage a peaceful attitude.

But is this advice not anti-Christian? No, Jesus was speaking to adults when he talked of turning the other cheek. Why expect young children to have the philosophy of grownups?

THE LUCK OF THE IRISH
Having a bit of the Irish in me, myself, all my life I've been hearing about 'the luck of the Irish.' But all my living days I've been accepting these five words in their ordinary meaning—that the Irish are LUCKY. And never once in all these years did I get the true understanding of the words. Not until last week did I, when an Irish friend of mine made them plain to me, plain as the nose on my own face.

I should have known, for there's Irish enough in me for that. For wasn't my own grandmother a Bann? And didn't her own father catch the gleam of gold far out in California nearly ninety years ago—and didn't he pack up his things in Dublin and come half across the world and around the Horn itself to dig a bit of the shiny stuff for himself—and then, didn't he, like the true blighted and whistled Irishman that he was, change his mind and teach instead, in a little school that stood instead of fifty (Continued On Page Seven)

HINTS and DINTS

Sun sets tonight 5:46. Sun rises tomorrow 6:40.

Mrs. Virginia Bradley, who is known as the "merry widow" from Georgia, due to the fact that she has already had nine husbands at the tender age of 30, and whose husband recently walked out on her, is going to write a book. When is just a small part of the great amount of literary trape we would not care to read.

According to a speech expert, America uses two languages. That's true. If you would hear some of the language a newspaperman uses while he grinds out copy which would please the most fastidious grammarian—at times—you would wonder how he does it.

DEAR MISS MARKEL—I am about to order some personal stationery. Give me your opinion on this subject—whether it should be tinted or white, folded or plain sheets, and what of correspondence cards?

Answer—All deep shades of pink, violet or bright blues should be avoided by you. Stationery with gilt edges and oddly shaped envelopes display a tendency toward loquaciousness. Some artists prefer envelopes with cut edges, but they are not appropriate for non-bohemians.

Stationery may be of double sheets, four pages to a set, or single sheets. These may be small or large, according to your taste and the style of your hand-writing.

For general correspondence avoid colorful and gayly lined envelopes. These are appropriate for young girls' stationery as well as for Christmas cards.

Miss Markel will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any reader including a self-addressed three-cent stamped envelope.

Tomorrow—Wedding Invitations.

FIRST we shall quote from a book which is becoming a best seller among readers on economic subjects—"The Follies of Capitalism" by Prof. Thurman W. Arnold of Yale (Yale University Press)—and then we shall quote a letter from the man who sent us the book, William Owen, of Washington.

Of "The Follies of Capitalism" (now in its fourth printing), Ralph Thompson, book critic of The New York Times, said: "One of the most penetrating and exciting political studies since Vahlen's 'Theory of the Leisure Class.' It seems to be."

"The Follies of Capitalism" is a book which is a broader term than "budget balancing." The term "budget balancing" is used to prevent the government from entering into the distribution of goods. Private industry is supposed to "cost" no one anything, unless it is engaged in some activity of which the people disapprove.

It was usual once to hear arguments about the social costs of the tobacco industry. Now it is regarded as one of the great evils along the road to recovery.

"The terms 'cost' and 'economy' are much like the terms 'efficiency' and 'inefficiency.' From the point of view of one who regards big automobiles in themselves as an unmitigated blessing, the automobile industry is one of the most efficient in the world. Suppose, however, we apply to the automobile industry the standards of efficiency and economy of one interested in the cheapest, safest, and most effective transportation. From this point of view, no more inefficient transportation could be imagined than the hauling of persons around in cars with hundreds of times more

FATHER COX IS FACING TRIAL

Indictment Returned By Federal Grand Jury For Alleged Lottery Connection

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 24.—Father James B. Cox, pastor of Old St. Patrick's church, who once led a march of jobless men on Washington, today faced trial as a lottery operator following indictment by a federal grand jury.

The well-known priest was indicted along with 13 others for his alleged connection with a $25,000 garden stakes contest conducted in the name of his church.

The government charged more than 2,000,000 tickets were sold through the mails in violation of an act of congress prohibiting the use of the mails in furtherance of a lottery. Eight counts were listed in the indictment, covering specifically solicitation of prospective lottery customers by mail. In the last count all 14 were charged with "conspiracy to use the mails in furtherance of a lottery."

Indicted with Father Cox were E. J. Clifford and Thomas A. Harkins, charged with being leading promoters. The names of the remaining 11 indicted were kept secret pending their arrest and they were imprisoned for 20 days by Judge Nelson McVicar.

Trial of Father Cox and his 13 co-defendants was expected to open at the May or December session of court.

The contest, begun last summer to secure a name of the monastery gardens at Father Cox' church, sold tickets for $1, each contestant receiving in return a St. Christopher medal blessed by Father Cox and a chance to submit three names.

The government charged the contest was one devised to escape the federal mail laws by offering a consolation prize to the winner of the $10,000 prize, the money to be paid to the winner of the contest.

The results: Moore 193, Eickles 190, Davis 190, Reiner 190, Shaw 188, Adams 187, Barber 186, Gutch 185, Gillespie 185, Davies 181, Uitch 174, Douglas 172, Chambers 171, Forrest 170.

General Pershing's Condition Improved

Believe Noted American War Leader Is Now Out Of Danger

(International News Service)

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 24.—Unless further complications set in, General John J. Pershing, commander of America's World War armies, today was considered out of danger by attending physicians.

The 77-year-old campaigner suffered an attack of rheumatism several days ago, and had a relapse on Tuesday when his heart gave him trouble.

At present, General Pershing is in no immediate danger, but his heart muscles "need a prolonged rest," according to Dr. Donald Davidson, "unless there is a sudden change."

Col. S. U. Marmetta, army heart specialist from Fort Houston, Tex., and Dr. Davidson said they had discovered that General Pershing suffered a severe coronary to his heart muscles which will require a prolonged rest in bed.

"But we still feel that the outcome of the general's illness will be favorable," Dr. Davidson said.

General Pershing was reported resting comfortably by the two physicians, who said they would probably issue another bulletin on his condition today.

First Beer And Liquor Dispensers Make Agreement With Mayor

OTHERS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW SOON

Two dispensers of beer and liquor today visited the office of Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell and registered as being in favor of the 12:30 a. m. closing hour, according to the chief.

Those who signed to abide by the request of Mayor Charles E. McGrath that no beer or liquor be dispensed following 12:30 a. m. on week days and 12 midnight, Saturday are Crescenzo Poulos, South Jefferson street, and Louis A. Sparano, North Liberty street.

They were the first of approximately 90 proprietors who hold licenses in the city of New Castle. Yesterday Mayor Charles E. McGrath asked that proprietors close at the forclosed stated hours, believing that such a move would prove a benefit to the welfare of the community.

Proprietors have until March 7 to register, thus showing their desire to co-operate with what Mayor McGrath believes will be beneficial for the community.

Start Of Thirty Year No Accident Record

Time marches on—and the automobile right with it! So one of the prized possessions of the John D. Rung family of Lakewood Beach is this 1910 photo of Mr. Rung behind the wheel of his Mitchell car, the "tops" among the "streamlined" vehicles popular about three decades ago.

Rung has never had an auto accident although he's driven many a mile since he got his first car—and that's a record.

Taken in front of Mr. Rung's old

West 44th street restaurant in Cleveland, the picture shows him at the wheel and his oldest son, Gregory, out front; another son, Joseph, sitting on the tool box, and Charles Burke, Cleveland, in the seat beside him.

Rung at that time was one of four steam engineers in Cleveland's municipal power plant and it was back there that he came to know Cleveland's famed mayor of those days, Tom L. Johnson, and the late Newton D. Baker, then secretary to Mr. Johnson.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Believe Il Duce Is Intimidated

Washington Writers Are Of Opinion That Mussolini Had To Give In To Hitler

IS IN TOO DEEP WATER FOR PRESENT

Central Press Washington Bureau, 602 Times-Herald Bldg. By CHARLES P. STEWART, Central Press Columnist.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Italy is not believed by disinterested diplomatic folk in Washington, to be over-pleased by the extension of German influence into Austria.

Upon second thought, it is not quite correct to speak of any diplomatic element as disinterested relative to latest developments in central Europe. All are intensely interested, including our own state department, but the interest of some diplomatic groups is particularly immediate. Others look, rather, into the future.

These semi-disinterested diplomats, then, generally speak, pretty confidentially, of Hitler as having decidedly out-smarted Mussolini.

IL DUCE INTIMIDATED?

Il Duce, to be sure, appears to have advised Chancellor Schuschnigg of Austria to submit to der Fuehrer's demand for an Austrian Nazification. The practically unanimous verdict, however, is that Benito was, in effect, intimidated. Not that he was scared to death, but he was judicious—probably more so than he liked to be.

There is a bit of difference between the principles of Naziism and Fascism. It is not so wide a difference as to be impossible to harmonize, maybe. Nevertheless, Fascism is indisposed to be assimilated into Naziism. Doubtless, too, some little feeling of personal jealousy may exist between Hitler and Mussolini—not bitter enough to prevent the latter from allying himself with the former, but sufficiently so to prevent Il Duce from enjoying being wangled, as a tail, by the Fuehrer's big dog.

Mussolini had to submit to it, for all that.

TOO MUCH EXPANSION?

It widely is recognized that Mussolini over-extended Italy at opposite ends of the Mediterranean.

He spent a lot of energy, men and money upon the Italian war in Ethiopia. He has not conquered Ethiopia yet, either. The aftermath of the campaign continues to be a drain upon his resources.

Then he lent a hand to support the Franco rebellion in Spain. Germany was supposed to have been sympathetic toward this rebellion also, but the Germans did not do much. They were not overstrained by their exertions anyway. They are fresh and formidable; Italy is exhausted.

GERMANY PREPARED

Now arises this Austrian situation. Germany is in shape to cope with it.

Italy is tired out. Historically enmity exists between Germany and Italy.

Before the World war they were allies. But when it came to a showdown, Italy reneged. It did not join the central powers in 1914, or thereafter.

"I will never forget your treason," wrote Kaiser Wilhelm to King Victor Emmanuel. Although the Kaiser is now out of the running and the king no longer signifies anything in Italy, I should imagine that German sentiment toward Italy might be somewhat the same old thing.

For some than 2,000 years California Indians have eaten the same foods, traded the same materials, and in general lived in the same way, says an anthropologist.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dances and parties. BUT, if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls.

Essay Contest On Constitution Planned In State

High School Seniors Have Opportunity To Win State Scholarships

HARRISBURG, Pa. Feb. 24.—Five scholarships in State universities offered to high and preparatory school seniors in Pennsylvania for the best essay on the Constitution of the United States, Dr. Lester K. Ade, superintendent of Public Instruction announced today.

The contest is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Constitution Commemorating committee appointed by Governor George H. Earle.

Rules governing the contest, mailed to the State's 1270 high schools by Albert M. Greenfield, chairman of the committee, provide that the contest will be open to the members of the classes graduating during the year 1938, including those of the February as well as the June classes.

Prizes for successful contestants are four-year scholarships ranging in value for the period from $1,500 to $400 made available by the University of Pennsylvania, University of Pittsburgh, Temple University, Duquesne University and Pennsylvania State College.

AROUND CITY HALL

No one desires to see a youth in trouble, but the fact remains that authorities are determined to break up gasoline stealing here as was evidenced by the arrest of two young men and a sentence to the county jail. The authorities have indicated that other youths who have been stealing fog lights and other accessories from automobiles may expect no leniency when apprehended.

City Engineer Glenn R. Throop is hoping that weather soon will permit employees of the WPA starting to work on the C paving program. The city hopes to complete all of the C list and to complete some of the D projects.

There is small likelihood of any bathing pools being built here. The city some years ago was asked to construct pools, but the request did not meet with favorable action.

Dr. William L. Steen, city health officer, is enforcing a strict quarantine on homes in which contagion exists. Contagion here has taken an upward bound since the first of February.

Efficiency of the traffic light placed more than a year ago at North Jefferson and Grant streets has proved out. Before the light was installed accidents were numerous. Since the installation few accidents there have occurred.

Employees of the WPA are employed in the various quarries securing stone for the city-WPA projects. It is hoped to have a big supply on hand when the paving work gets under way. The stone costs five cents a ton.

Traffic court will be held between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m. Friday, according to Mayor Charles E. McGrath. Not many persons seek to

Don't Neglect a Cold

Rub soothing, warming Musterole well into your chest and throat. Musterole is NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant" containing good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor and other valuable ingredients.

That's why it gets such fine results—better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole penetrates, stimulates, warms and soothes, helpful in drawing out local congestion and pain. Used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

be excused from paying a fine for violation of the parking meter ordinance.

City police have not patrolled the parking meters in the different thoroughfares during the past few Saturday nights. However, up to 6 p. m. motorists must pay a parking fee, police advise.

City officers in charge of plumbing licenses, coal licenses and rubbish licenses report that not all of those who require licenses have taken them out. They are advised by the officers to do so immediately.

Sanitary Policeman Chauncey Davis is a very busy individual these days. Due to the contagion increase he alone puts up cards quarantining homes, then removes the cards when the quarantine period expires.

According to reports the Washington street parking meters are high insofar as collections are concerned. Mercer and Mill street collections run about even. Croton avenue meters are not so fruitful, reports state.

Time was when the city solicitor's bureau was not so busy. However, during the administration of Solicitor R. Mc. White the duties became voluminous owing to delinquent tax matters. That situation yet prevails.

Owen Fox, city forester, who is a lover of nature and who is versed well in plant and animal life, is firm in the belief that Young Spring is scoring vulnerable blows against Old Winter. Plant life proves this, Fox reports.

Due to improvements now under way at Cascade Park it will be much enhanced in appearance for recreation seekers. A new kitchen is being installed and a new stone comfort station is being built.

With the removal of the stone house which possibly cost $12,000, at Cunningham Park to Gaston Park, one more evidence of the work done there will be eliminated. At one time hopes for a big recreation center there were held out.

Remember the traffic directors of former years? Tommy Lynch was one of the first. He was stationed at Mill and Washington streets. In those pre-light days they had to stand out in the middle of the street regardless of weather.

Organizations which formerly were allowed to meet in the city building are now making plans to meet in other quarters. This was due to the instructions by council to Councilman Alexander to permit no meetings in city hall rooms.

It may not be long until Director of Parks J. D. Alexander and the Sylvan Heights golf board completes their plans for 1938. As soon as the turf hardens preparations will get under way to condition the course.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath's request that liquor places close at 12:30 a. m. is no different than that made in some other cities. He believes an early closing hour will prove beneficial to the community.

City Engineer Glenn R. Throop believes that at least 300 employees will be placed to work on the Mercer street-Euclid avenue-Shenango river storm sewer when the project starts after necessary legislation is enacted.

Street department officers say that this time of year has been one of the most peculiar periods in their history. The ground does not seem to dry up and as a result more ashes for streets are needed than was expected.

Dads-Sons Event Wednesday Night Is Well Attended

Annual Event At Union
Township High School
Sponsored By Hi-Y

REV. CALVIN ROSE
IS MAIN SPEAKER

Close to 150 persons attended the Fathers and Sons banquet held Wednesday evening in the Union township high school under the sponsorship of the Union Hi-Y club. A delicious dinner menu was served by the members of the Union Parents-Teachers association at 6:30 o'clock.

Chetron Hofmeister, faculty supervisor for the Hi-Y club, was in charge of the program and introduced William C. McGrew, who was to act as toastmaster.

Toastmaster McGrew introduced Rev. Calvin Rose, who was the main speaker for the event, and his topic was, "Is a Son a Nuisance?"

Jay G. Rudolph, supervising principal of the school, was introduced and presented an award to the father and son whose combined age was the greatest. The award went to Lee Zedaker and his son, Lee, Jr., of New Bedford.

For the father and son with the youngest combined age, Rudolph and his son, Jay G. Jr., were given the award.

Several vocal selections were given by a quartet from the school, composed of Bob McKinney, Ralph Flaughter, Bob McGrew and George Michaels. Music was furnished by the school orchestra, under the direction of Bill King.

William C. King delivered a short toast to the sons, and he was answered in a toast to the fathers by his son, William C. King, Jr.

Milton Pattison, principal of the high school, was introduced and he entertained the group with two interesting and entertaining readings.

Group singing during the hours was a feature of the event, being led by LeRoy Rowley, music supervisor at the school. The program was brought to a close by a short prayer by Rev. Munu.

'Devil's Program' Is Subject Tonight

Appearing before another great audience at the Pentecostal church last night, Evangelist Tubby spoke with characteristic frankness on the subject, "From Doom to Deliverance," and illustrated the message with the story of Naaman, the leper.

An attractive musical program was presented, including a string ensemble, featuring an electrical guitar, an instrumental trio by Albert Sarbo, John Sarbo and Salvatore Palmer.

Tonight another feature musical program will be given and Mr. Tubby will bring another prophetic message, entitled, "The Devil's Program."

Man Is Killed By Fast Freight

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 24.—John A. Lang, 44-year-old Portage miner, was dead here today because he used the Pennsylvania railroad main line tracks for a short cut.

Lang's body was cut in two when he was struck by a freight train a mile east of Portage. Members of the train crew said Lang evidently became confused when he saw a passenger train approaching in the opposite direction, and stepped into the path of the freight train.

'Electric Eye' Now Installed

Lighting Mechanism At Public Library Is Ready For Operation

WPA electricians engaged in making the finishing touches at the new library building, completed the installation of the photo electric cell on Wednesday afternoon, which will control the lighting in the reading and periodical rooms.

The "electric eye" as it has been termed, will register the light intensity in these two rooms, and if the outside light is not strong enough for reading purposes the "eye" throws a switch and turns on the lights in the rooms.

No attention is required for the lights by the library staff, but as soon as the skies begin to cloud and hide the sun rays, the electric eye automatically throws the switch providing artificial light.

As soon as the clouds disappear and the outside light again comes into the building, the "electric eye" again throws the switch turning off the lights.

Those on the WPA staff who were responsible for the installation of this eye include John "Scotty" Fellen and Chalmers Patterson.

KALE IS GOOD

Kale is just as good for you as spinach, maybe even better, experts report. Collards, lowly green from the south, have also climbed into the social "greens" register. But cautions are given against eating the leaves of rhubarb because of their oxalic acid content.

In 1900 the average American's chances of attending high school were one in 10. Last year they were 6 in 10, with a fifty-fifty chance of graduating.

Bank Along Lower Side Of Shenango River To Have Flood Wall Built

Workmen began on Wednesday to lay the foundation for the flood wall along the bank of the Shenango river, below the Cherry street bridge, on the side towards Mahoningtown.

This bank will prevent water from washing over the banks into the Seventh ward in future years. A strong stone foundation is built first and then earth packed in about it.

Some time ago the upper bank of the river was given a wall. Another purpose for this wall is to stop the river from washing away the bridge supports.

The river at this point has been greatly widened and deepened by the workmen.

Artists Still Going Hungry

McIntyre Found Soul-Hungry People Starving For Principles
BOSS ACTUALLY DOES GO CRAZY

(One of the last of O. O. McIntyre's columns completed shortly before his death follows:)

NEW YORK—There are still a few candle-lit attic studios in Greenwich Village where the soul-hungry continue to starve for principles. Still a number of flaming radicals who have studied at Julien's and hope to get back to Boul Mich.

There are the last of the modern rebels depicting commercialism and stoutly denouncing the fellows who succumbed to the easy go of newspaper comics for advertising illustrations. The last of the die-hards unswerving in their devotion to art for art's sake.

Particularly do the faithful resent the spread of the night clubs and other foody palaces that have supplanted O. O. McIntyre so many quiet waffle parlors and coffee shops. And made their world slightly honky-tonk. Now and then a rare mellow patriarch will be found among them.

An older with white mustaches, goatee, corduroys and beret. He usually bears the sobriquet of Poppa and his venerable eyes glow when he comes upon some ambitious canvases that show promise. Immediately he will beg the embryo painter to cleave to non-commercial ideals.

True story: A young man well known in New York business circles was recently given the gate from a job he held nine years, without explanation from his boss. Confused and hurt, he made the mistake of telling prospective employers that he was sacked because his boss was crazy, and was thus turned down.

Nancy Hoyt, talented writer and sister of the equally talented poetess, Elmer Wylie, and something of a literary mad-cap, is greatly interested in bird cages although she has no interest in birds. She thinks they are somehow amusing. Not long ago she made a bird cage for a friend, a bride, and in place of the perch dangled a wedding ring through which she had drawn a well balanced sardine. Kinda hilariously goofy when you think about it!

Draft dodger: George Jean Nathan lives in perpetual terror of drafts. He will quit a theater, restaurant or private dinner pronto at the slightest wisp of breeze. Also he works in an unventilated office and adds to the mugginess by puffing fierce black cigars.

Elbows on the dining table are absolutely o.k. according to most informed experts in upper bracket behaviorism. Although there's a psycho-physiological law that with elbows on the table hands have to get busy and do something they shouldn't. Both Emily Post and Margery Wilson closed the discussion with the dictum: "Elbows on the table are all right. It seems less stiff." A spy tells me that at a recent dinner Emily Post who had her elbows so adjusted most of the time was constantly tweaking an off ear and Margery Wilson, who peddles charm and poise, was alternately twirling a note book and feeling her face.

Last of the little cigar smokers seem to be Gelfin Burgess and Roscoe Peacock, the sage of North Cohocion. At lunch the other day Burgess offered Peacock a slim cigarillo—the kind he keeps in a pocket in his socks. Peacock gazed in complete bewilderment. He knew of no one else who smoked thin ones. He sends to Tampa for his and Burgess gets his right around the corner. Solemnly they shook hands. The beginning of one of Webster's beautiful friendships!

Thingumbobs: Amos 'n Andy's dumb stenographer is Madeline Lee, great-grand-daughter of Robert E. Lee and an expert character actress. Murdock Pemberton has not worn a white shirt for ten years—the raudier the better is his credo.

Form Council To Aid Youth In Local Problems

Interested Citizens Hear Judge McGowan Tell How To Solve Delinquency

SURVEY WILL BE MADE IN DISTRICT

After hearing Judge J. W. McGowan, of Pittsburgh, speak on the problem of child delinquency, an organization was formed at the Y. W. C. A. last evening to be known as the Community Educational Recreational Council, which will assist the NYA here in an attempt to solve the problems of delinquency among youth.

Howard M. White, chairman of the County NYA organization, presided and introduced Mayor Charles E. McGrath as the first speaker. Mayor McGrath spoke of the need for a civic body of this kind to assist in work of this nature, a great need having been shown for such a body in this city. Mayor McGrath, since assuming the office of mayor has found that by the time the delinquent child comes in contact with the law, that it is practically too late to do anything for him, and that prevention would go a long way towards solving the greater part of the crime problem.

Judge McGowan, assistant state director of NYA and former morals court judge, stated that quite a lot of the child delinquency problem could be traced to the home, and that in addition to supervised recreation, there was also need of adult education. People spend many years in preparing for a career or to raise pigs, horses, or chickens, but have the problems of parenthood thrust on them overnight. Many of them never make any effort to adjust themselves to the new situation and leave their children to grow up the way they can.

Judge McGowan stated that when a youth is sent to a house of correction, he gets out in time, often worse than when he went in. It costs slightly more than $400 a year to keep these youths in correctional institutions, whereas a small amount of money spent in keeping youths away from the influences which breed crime, would save them from this penalty.

At the close of the addresses, the following officers were named for Council mentioned above: President, Mrs. Sylvia Sturdevant; vice president, Mrs. Corrie Jeffery Roberts; secretary, Alex Thomas; executive committee, Mrs. J. H. Templeton, Mrs. John J. Maher, Mrs. Beatrice Dave, B. J. Boudt, and Mrs. C. R. Brennan.

The general committee includes: Mayor Charles E. McGrath, Mrs. Edith DeArment, J. Leslie Brindle, L. B. DeArment, Rufus Simpson, Miss Rose Brown, Miss Maxine Sheaff, Miss Alice Sterling, Frank Coon, Mary Ann White, Paul J. Perry and Guy J. Wadlinger.

DAY OF PRAYER PLANS ARE NOW ABOUT COMPLETE

Practically every church denomination in the city will have a part in the program to be presented at the First Presbyterian church, corner of North Jefferson and Falls streets, on March 4, in observance of World Day of Prayer.

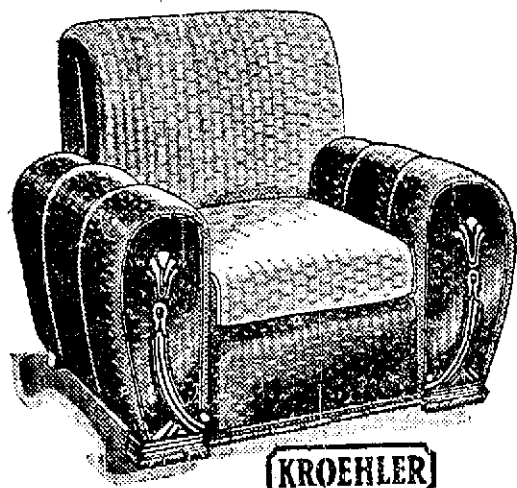

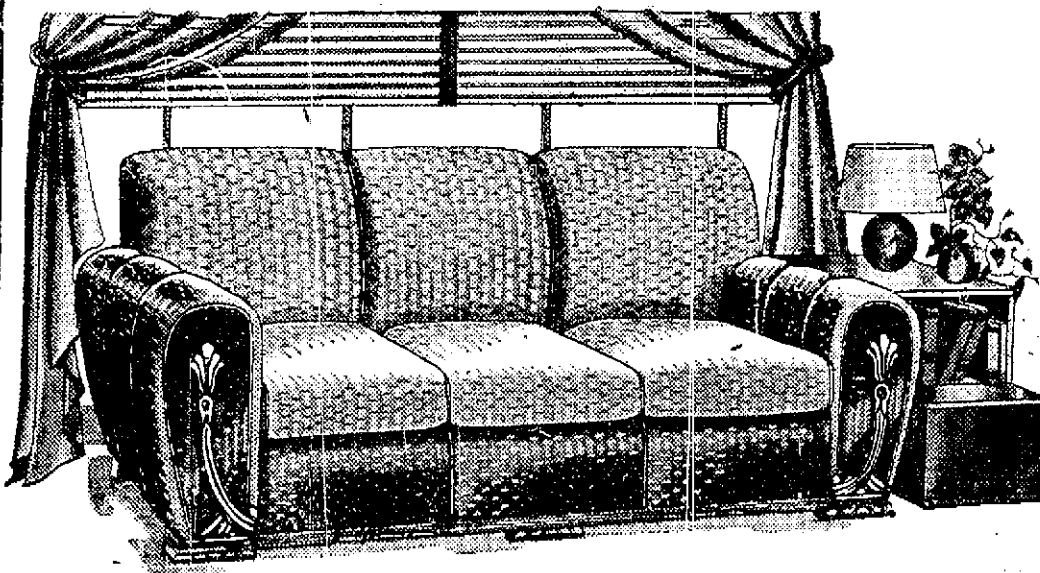

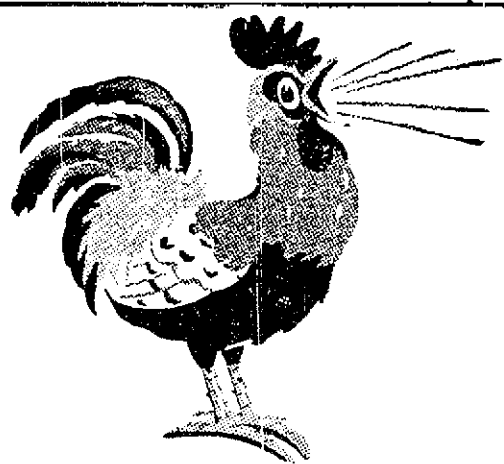

It will be an all-day program, sessions at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Details will be published in The News later.

A box of 100 matches cost 37 cents in 1833.

"Don't send your son or daughter to college to play football, to make a university, or to have a good time. He may do all these things incidentally, but college work should be above all an intellectual experience."

Union High Battles Rochester Tonight

Locals Make Debut In Class B Tourney

Dawes Gymnasium, New Brighton, Battle Scene; Game Starts At 8 O'Clock

LARGE CROWD WILL FOLLOW LOCAL FIVE

Keyed up to the highest possible pitch, a determined Union Township high school basketball team takes in its last for Class B, W. P. I. A. L. honors, tonight on the Dawes gymnasium, New Brighton, when the Scotland Lane cage combination opposes Rochester high. The game starts at 8 o'clock.

The Lawrence Commons will tip the colors of Section 21 with the strong valleys represent the tops in Section 12. Coach Patterson's machine faces its toughest assignment of the year. Rochester has dropped but one decision in section competition and ranks as one of the potential winners of the coveted Class B pennant. In the eyes of Valley fans, Rochester stands out as a winner over the P. N. W. kids. With his full squad back after several casualties during the season, Coach Patterson's team may surprise. But Union will have to play honest to goodness basketball from the start until the final goal is to return home the winner.

From Union High came reports that the local camera men are a "litter" as far as conditions are concerned. Several long warblers have proved the thing for the Lancers. A victory tonight will not only eliminate one of the strongest contenders, but will also put the Unionites right among the top-notchers in the tourney. Union's big problem will be stopping this lad Leonard Krause, who ranks as a crack forward. Valley deposits peddled on a story today to the effect that Krause was forced to invade Pittsburgh to purchase a suitable brace for his leg, which was injured recently. It is likely that he will play and will prove Union's headache.

Gummaugh, Corvill and Smith are expected to be the main threats for Union. Throughout the season, the trio stood out brilliantly in Section 21 circles. Honcher and Gummaugh, at forwards; King at center; and Smith and Corvill at guards, will form the starting lineup for Union.

Large Following

The Blue and White end careers will be well represented in the cheering section, according to day football. A couple of buses will transport Union's regular delegation to the scene of battle. The

Union high school won Section 21 this year after a tough season with such teams as Desermer, Wampum, Shungo, New Wilmington, Mt. Jackson and East Brook. The league was first this year, but not to terror for the Union high team coached by Wilbur Patterson, who succeeded Davey Boyd this year. Tonight the Union high team goes to the New Brighton gym floor to battle Rochester high in the first of the Class B elimination games.

If Union wins tonight they will meet the winner of the Claysville-Clark Township game in March at the Pitt stadium. Bill King will be acting captain tonight.

Six Schools Are Suspended After W.P.I.A.L. Hearing

The W. P. I. A. L. basketball committee went to Fayette County yesterday and conducted a set of hearings, with the result that six of the Fayette County schools are under suspension from the league.

The schools suspended were—Uniontown, Point Marion, South Union, North Union, Georges Township and Monongahela Township.

Most of the protests were on eligible players and schools using non-resident players. None of the schools will be able to get back into the good graces of the league before March 1, 1938.

There will not be a high school special train to Pittsburgh, Saturday for the New Castle-Altoona game. This was announced by Ferry Manager Ralph H. Gardner today.

However, the railroads are offering a round trip ticket for $1.50 for a party of 25 people, it is stated. But, there will positively not be a special run by the Senior high school.

Brooklyn Dodgers Team Of 'Old Men'

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Only the Dodgers could have gathered together as strange a collection of ball players as Brooklyn Grims will unveil this season.

Old Iron Whiskers will have a couple of 40-year old outfielders and a pitcher or two of the same venerable vintage. One two-ton catcher and another who saw his best days many years ago, some fast stars and a rare assortment of bushers.

Take them all together, mix well, and they probably add up to about sixth place in the final standing.

Despite their age and previous condition of servitude, they are a better club than the one that drove flatbush fans into a frenzy last summer. They are better if for no other reason than that they could not possibly be worse.

Good Pitchers
If all the old timers on hand could shed even ten years I would not hesitate to pick them to win the pennant, but, unfortunately for Grims and Brooklyn, this cannot be done even with mirrors.

For instance, a pitching staff composed of Freddy Fitzsimmons, White Hoyt, Fred Frankhouse and Jim Lindsey—at their peak—plus Atlantic women's golf tourney at Ormond Beach, Fla....

Well, there it is, and how do you like it? Let's give 'em sixth place and duck before brave Philly and Boston fans grab us.

Demo Leading In Scoring Race

Titan Forward Has Amassed Total Of 240 Points So Far This Season

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 24.—Andy Demos, 20 points against Youngstown this week, gave him 240 points and commanding lead in the district scoring race. The slender Johnstown forward's points come from 97 field goals and 46 free throws for 240 points in 16 games, to average 15 markers for each contest.

Closely following Demo in the scoring race is Mel Miller, New Brighton Team component, who has 174 points in fifteen games on 62 field-goals and 40 charity throws, for an average of 11.6 points a game.

Other Titan scorers include Gillingham, New Wilmington forward, with 84 points on 38 field goals and 7 free throws; Kuroch, Sharon guard, 70 points on 32 goals and 15 free throws; Tom Patton, West Middlesex freshman, 55 points on 32 goals and 15 free throws; Tom Patton, West Middlesex freshman, 55 points on 32 goals and 15 free throws; Paul Backus, Uniontown forward, 39 points on 12 baskets and 15 free-tries.

K. Pulaskis Lose To Epworth Five

The K. Pulaskis lost to the Epworth M. E. five last night at the K. P. ball 63 to 55 in a free-scoring battle. At the last the score favored the Epworth team 30 to 24.

Davis with 20 points led the score for the winners, with Weber and Kennedy also high scorers. For the Epworthians, the work of Joe Orosky, Clemenski and Hunt was by far the best.

It was the second defeat handed the highly touted K. P. team by the Epworth league champs. The Epworths are out to take the city title this year.

Results From Floor League

Four games were played in the Older Boys league at the Y. M. C. A. with the Washington H. Y. team topping the Eagles, 47 to 21, with Kelley, Robinson and Wilkison starring. The P. J. Nolles team topped up to the Shamrocks, 23 to 24, with Kelley starring with 23 points. McGary with 15 points was also a star.

The First U. P. team, with Porter and Passers getting the majority of points, topped the Cyclones, 23 to 22. The Crossers, with Fentimano and Cowden starring, lost to the Saks, 23 to 15. Thomas led the Saks.

Thrills that last... like Ole Man River. New Castle high school athletic teams continue to roll along... for years—since 1923—teams have produced thrills—the variety that has made them such a unique attraction. This season, the variety of thrills has been increased by the fact that the Union high team goes to the New Brighton gym floor to battle Rochester high in the first of the Class B elimination games.

It was a perfect ending as far as the Union high team is concerned, one that seemed like the story book ending of a team that has been a disappointment for so long.

MANN GAME BUT UNABLE TO LAST

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports
Editor
NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—They're talking today about what Joe Louis is going to do to his next victim, but the old fashioned and so I have to go back and relate what happened to the last one. The last one was Mr. Nathan Mann of New Haven, Conn., and the details were rather pitiful.

Before a capacity house of 19,000, Louis knocked out Mann in 1:56 of the third round of their scheduled 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night. It was as brief and as formal as that.

Mann had a pair of hands that were always a split second behind the champion's and therefore the result was ordained.

Twice in the first round Mann nailed Louis with overhand rights, but Joseph giggled those punches off and came back with successive rapids which clearly indicated he was about to score a decisive victory.

Down Four Times

Mann was down four times all told, biding his time until he could find an opening. Louis finally broke through the challenger's guard just before the end of the second round with a bomb-like right to the jaw that put Nathan right in the middle of Quaker street.

He took a count of nine. Louis was all set to finish him, but the bell came to Mann's rescue.

From that point on, however, the Connecticut fighter never knew what hit him. In the third round, he hit the deck for counts of one and three before Joe's left finally ended the slaughter. Louis dared to take the customary count of nine, he revealed later he didn't even know he had been on the Axminster.

Mann Is Game

The surprising features of the fight were Mann's almost unbelievable gameness and the nonchalance with which Louis weathered the challenger's Sunday punch.
Mann, in fact, actually won the first round. His most telling punch was a steaming right which landed flat on Joseph's button.

That punch carried the hopes and the cash money of thousands of the challenger's Connecticut admirers who came to town to cover those juicy 5 to 1 odds. It made Joe's knives sag a little, but that was all.
And from that time on, Louis took command in no uncertain manner.

nearer and nearer to the Louisiana

Usellon is second in the race, now nearing its finish in the "Y" pool.

Boston Bees Will Bank On Rookies

Believe That Max West, Coast League Sensation
Will Be Hitting Star

Bank On Lou Fette And Turner To Hurl Many
Winning Games
This Year

By JAMES BAGLEY

BOSTON, Feb. 24.—"Although there are not many outstanding prospects, we should at least finish in the same spot as last season—fifth place," said Casey Stengel, new manager of the Boston Bees, in preparing to open spring training at Bradenton, Fla., for the 1938 National league pennant campaign.

The best looking prospect on the Bees' roster is Max West, 21-year-old slugging outfielder from the Mission club of the Pacific Coast league, who, Stengel believes, will furnish the much needed batting punch in his outfield.

Vince DiMaggio, brother of the famous Joe, and Gene Moore will round out the outfield. The veteran Roy Johnson, Bob Garms and Jim Southern, up from Zanesville, also are battling for berths in the outer garden.

Stengel said he knows the Bees' defensive strength was responsible for them finishing at the top of the second division last season and the main problem will be to get some offensive strength if they hope to do as well again.

Banks On Rookies

Jim Turner and Lou Fette, freshman twins, turned in 40 victories last year, the first time this was ever done by two first year men on the same club.

With the veteran Danny MacFay-den, Frank "Gabbo" Gabler, Ira Hutchinson and Johnny Lanning, who has shown promise the past two seasons, Stengel hopes to round out a strong pitching staff.

A couple of minor league veterans are looked upon to help the Bees.
Milt Schofield, who came to the Bees near the close of the campaign, did some fine pitching. Johnny Niggling, 30-year-old veteran from Newark, is expected to be used in relief roles.

Gabler, obtained from the Giants a year ago, and Hutchinson, a big, right handed fast ball pitcher, are looked to by Casey to be of great assistance this coming campaign.

Break Up Infield

The infield will be broken up this season depending on the ability of Joe "Sweet" Walsh, shortstop from the Little Rock club, to make good.
Tony Cucinello, who is slowing up, will be moved over to third base.

Rabbit Wastler will shift from shortstop to second base and Elbie Fletcher will be on first.

Earl Margret, listed as an outfielder and infielder, from Nashville; Bob Kable, a shortstop from Indianapolis, are considered the best of the new infielders who have a chance of sticking.

The catching staff again will be headed by Senor A. Lopez with Ray Mueller expected to share the burden.

Geneva Next On Titan Schedule

Game To Be Played At New Wilmington On Saturday Night

GAME WILL BE ONE OF SEASON'S BEST

(Special To The News)

With twelve victories and four defeats for the 1938 season, Coach Grover Washbaugh's Blue and White team have only four games remaining on this year's schedule.
In their next game, the Titans meet the Geneva Covenanters in the Westminster gym Saturday night, February 26, at 8:15, with a curtain-raiser between Pittsburgh-Xenia senior and the Titans, second scheduled to start at 7:30.

Following the Geneva game, the Titans travel to East Palestine, O., Monday night, February 28, to play their second game of the season with Coach Ray Sweeney's Youngstown college Penguins. The game will be played in the high school gymnasium, is scheduled for 8:15.

The Titans close their season with two home-games, both tough contests, with Waynesburg, Saturday, March 5, and Carnegie Tech, Tuesday, March 8. If no defeats turn up to mar the close of the season, the Titans will emerge with their best showing since 1933-34 when the Blue and White turned in a 22 win and 4 lost record.

Saturday night's game should be one of the best on the local floor, since the Titans will be out to repay Geneva for a 30-27 Westminster de-feast at Beaver Falls early in the season. When Geneva's ability to shoot fouls won them a game in which they were one field-goal short of the Titans.

Local fans will be interested in the return to form of Ralph Gilliland, New Wilmington senior forward, who has collected 46 points in the last four games for almost a 12 average. In addition to Gilliland, among the starters will probably be Miller and Krivosch, guards; Denis, forward; and Backus at center.

New head football coach Fritz Crisler of Michigan announced appointments of Campbell Dickson, Princeton end coach, as his assistant.

Lawson scored half-length victory over Bush Hook in feature event at Hialeah Park.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—"That boy just made one mistake; that's all, just one mistake," said the champion of the world paused for theatrical effect, grinned, and then added:

"He started to fight me in that second round and that was his big mistake."

Sitting on a dressing table, in his red-trimmed royal blue dressing gown, the Brown Bomber explained his reaction to fight.

Praises Mann

"He's a game boy, all right, that Natie Mann, but he can't punch.
Nossir, he can't punch to hurt. Not a-tail."

"How come he hit you with that right hand in the first round, Joe?"
somebody asked.

"Guess I just wasn't warmed up right," said Louis. "We wuz going along nice and then all of a sudden he starts to mix with me and right there that white boy wuz on his way out."

"What made you mad?" someone wanted to know.

"I wasn't mad," Joe replied. "I just, frained to look mad."

Did he want another fight before Max Schmeling?

"Sure do," said Joe.

"I got a good workout last night, but I'd like to have one more fight before I tangle with him."

Wants To Meet Schmeling

Did he think Schmeling might tag him again with a right, like Mann did, and like Schmeling once did?

"Naw," Joe was disgusted.

"I guess I wasn't warmed up right and maybe I was a little careless," he grinned. "Betcha I won't be careless with that Schmeling," and Joe waved gaily to please the camera men.

Over in the other room, a thoroughly disillusioned young man was consoling a young brother who was crying.

It was Natie Mann, unmarked after several Louis-induced trips to the canvas.

Louis is a wonderful puncher all right," Natie admitted meekly. "I didn't know where I was at after he hit me in the second round. That is, I guess it was the second round.
It might have been the tenth for all I know. I didn't know much about anything after that."

Roof Caved In

"I felt like the roof had caved in on me. Boy, can he sock! No, I can't tell you why I started to mix with him. Guess he just stung me and got mad and started to slug with him."

"I've never been hit like that before. Cosh, he just paralyzes you when he lands. You go numo all over."

"No, I didn't feel any pain. When he hits you, it's just like getting a shot of ether."

"Yeh, I'd like to fight him again," Natie hesitated before adding, "but not soon."

No, no, Natie. Not soon. And if you're wise and value your health, not ever.

Duquesne presented Pitt with a basketball defeat, 39 to 37, last night at Pittsburgh. The Dukes led at the half 20 to 16. Krsling, forward for Duquesne, capped 13 points and Johns, forward for Pitt, scored 12 points. At Washington, Georgetown upset Carnegie Tech, 45 to 41.
Murphy, forward for Georgetown, hooped 17 points and Pereskey, center for the winners, made 14 points. Glenville brought their record to 21 consecutive victories by winning 57 to 44, from Waynesburg, at Waynesburg. Waynesburg could not stop the heavy scoring of Cottle, forward; Lilley, guard, and Martino, guard, who amassed a total of 38 of Glenville's 57 points. Everhart, guard for the losers, made 13 points.

Reports from New York City say that 19,490 spectators paid $111-998.49 to see Joe Louis heavyweight champion of the world, knock out Nate Mann in the third round. It was the first heavyweight championship boxing bout indoors since Jack Dempsey knocked out Bill Brennan in 1926. The Louis-Mann fight was held in Madison Square Garden. The Dempsey-Brennan scrap was held in the old garden.
Louis looked impressive last night to the critics. Mann lost good weight he took the first round, but thereafter there was little doubt of the result.

While Fred Apostoli's manager, Larry White, groaned and claimed robbery because the referee gave Young Corbett III the decision over the uncrowned middleweight champion at San Francisco Monday night, Young Corbett, a veteran, said he was surprised at Freddie's lack of power. "It will not be long

California punchers."

Not So Crazy About
Bout With Steele

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—
Thirty-three-year-old Young Corbett II of Fresno, who scored an upset by taking a 10-round decision from Fred Apostoli, isn't so anxious to take a crack at Middleweight Champion Freddie Steele.

"I wouldn't accept a fight with Steele unless I was sure I could beat him," said Corbett, a veteran of 18 years in the ring. "And I'm not so sure I could—I'm getting old, you know!"

Apostoli, who recently conquered both Steele and Marcel Thill, the European middleweight titleholder, had a bit of advice for Corbett regarding Steele. It was:

"Corbett had better stay away from Steele. Steele will kill you."

Market Reaction Develops Today

Slight Downward Trend Following Three Days Of Ascending Prices

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The stock market turned downward today after three days of advancing prices as profit-taking was attracted by yesterday's sharp upswing. Leaders slipped a point or more, although volume was considerably under the preceding day's total.

Aviations and a few scattered specialties resisted the influx of realizing, and were able to chalk up modest gains. The general list, though, was under moderate pressure from the start, with steel and copper leading the way downward.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem each dropped well over a point and Youngstown almost as much in the steel section. Big steel started 1 1/2 points lower on a sale of 2,500 shares at 56.

Companies whose directors are expected to meet this afternoon for dividend action slipped more than a point. General Motors limited its decline to a fraction. American Smelting, Kennecott and Anaconda each were off a point in the copper.

Independent strength in aviation brought gains of a point each in Boeing and Douglas at one time but these were cut down late in the forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Aiken Entertain At Oyster Supper Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 24.—A delightful event of Wednesday evening took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Aiken of the Ellwood-New Brighton road when they entertained members of the Sunshine and Young Men's classes of the North Sewickley Presbyterian church at a combined meeting.

Each of the classes held an election of officers during a brief business meeting. Sunshine class leaders selected were: President, Miss Caroline Takacs; vice president, Miss Virginia Huber; secretary and treasurer, Miss Pearl Knight; assistant secretary, Miss Josephine Tanchuk; and teacher, J. R. Clarke.

President, Fred Pflugh; vice president, Steve Takacs; secretary, Gordon Forbush; treasurer, John Takacs; and teacher, Walter J. Bihan, were the officers elected by the men's class.

Games of a wide variety held the attention of the guests including table tennis and bingo with awards going to Misses Doris Clarke, Mary Ellen Forbush, Elsie Pflugh and Caroline Takacs. A spelling bee was featured with Robert Sheehan being the winner.

The climactic feature of the evening was the serving of a most appetizing oyster supper by the hostess and her aides, Mrs. Walter Bihan, Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Pearl Knight. Attractive patriotic appointments added color to the setting.

At the regular meeting last evening a business session was held and announcement made that the Fraternity had been fortunate in securing as advisors and committeemen a few local civic and business leaders to aid in the Young Men's Conference, April 2nd and 3rd. The response to date has been gratifying.

The social committee has arranged for a swimming party to follow the business meeting of next week. Also, all members are requested to be present for a clean-up session at the club rooms this coming Saturday afternoon.

Enjoyable Event Held Wednesday At Connoquenessing Terrace Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 24.—To make the occasion of the sixth birthday anniversary of her son, John, a memorable one Mrs. Charles B. Bisceglia entertained a circle of his little friends and playmates at a party on Wednesday at their home on Connoquenessing Terrace.

Hours were from 5 to 7 o'clock and the entertainment which proved to be most enjoyable for the little guests was an amateur hour with each of the merry-makers offering their own "specialty".

The main feature of the party was the refreshment hour when the guests were seated at two long tables and served delicious refreshments. The girls' table was decorated in pink and white and the boys' table in green and white with prettily decorated birthday cakes centering each table.

Many lovely gifts were received by the guest of honor.

Shelby League

Game Results

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 24.—Any hopes that the Cold Finish had of winning the third round title of the Shelby basketball league were somewhat dampened Wednesday night when they lost to the Cold Draw 35 to 32 after having a 6-point lead at the half.

The third period was a disastrous one for them when they were limited to only three points while the winners were adding 12 points to take the lead by three points. In the last period, the losers staged a rally but at the same time the Cold Draw scored victory and they too, scored 12 points to win the game by a 4-point margin.

Paced by Lallano, who made eight baskets and two fouls for a total of 19 points, the Inspection managed to win over the Mechanicals 37 to 34 but it was a hard fought contest all the way. At the half-way mark the score stood at 17 to 16 with the winners leading. Had the Mechanicals been able to maintain their scoring pace in their third quarter, they would have stood a good chance of humbling the strong Inspectionites for they rallied and outscored them in the last quarter.

High scores were Tammara for the Cold Finish, Clyde Barnes and Petruch for the Cold Draw, Hazen for the Inspection and Lutz and Janoskewicz for the Mechanical.

The game schedule for Saturday night are Hot Finish versus Mechanical, and Office versus Cold Draw.

On Monday evening the Hot Finish and the Inspection will battle for the second round championship. The summary:

Pentecostal Revival Is Now In Fifth Big Week

SUNDAY EVENING AUDIENCE AT CATHEDRAL

This scene at the Cathedral auditorium last Sunday night, photographed during a huge revival meeting sponsored by the First Pentecostal church, is reminiscent of the days when unprecedented throngs of New Castle people took the sawdust trail with Billy Sunday during his memorable campaign here some years ago.

Standing on the platform, in the background of the picture, are Rev. Alfred Bunney of Wampum, Major Charles E. McGrath of New Castle, Evangelist C. S. Tubby, the Canadian Crusader who is preaching the revival sermons, and Rev. Bos-ton W. Turner, pastor of the First Pentecostal church.

It was estimated that close to 2,000 people were in attendance, the largest revival audience under one roof here in years.

The revival, now in the fifth week, is continuing each night at the Pentecostal church.

In a supplemental opinion handed down by Judge W. Walter Brannan on Wednesday, he modified somewhat an opinion handed down some time ago in the case of Guy Van Meter and Melvin Gregg against J. R. Moore of Palaski Twp. The plaintiffs had brought a court action to prevent tax collectors from selling property of citizens in the township for school taxes. In the original opinion Judge Brannan ruled that the tax collectors could collect by distraint but could add no costs to the face of the tax return.

In the supplemental opinion he says the following: "we were in error in holding that there is now no statutory provision allowing the collector of school taxes in a township of the second class to add costs to the amount of taxes and penalty when collected by distraint. He has the right, by virtue of Section 5 of the Act of 1855, P.L. 187 and also by reason of Section 570 of the 2nd class township code of 1932, P.L. 103.

Under this ruling a collector can proceed in the manner he formerly did and in collection by distraint, that is by legal process, can add the costs which accrue.

In lively volley ball competition before the speech, a team of Pro Indus members defeated The Townsmen. The latter were hosts last night.

A guest was Elmer E. McClintock.

In the appeal of James Zarbano for a new trial following a verdict against him in a charge of innocent assault Judge Brannan has handed down an order refusing the appeal.
